

We have 1 child and another on the way. My wife and I both work and our schedules don't match and we don't buy anything over the telephone anyway. Please allow this law to continue because we need our peace these days. Thank You, James M. Carpenter